AMERICAN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE IN THE LEAD.

WHAT THE EARLY RETURNS INDICATE.

Washington, November 4. It is stated at the White House that President Coolidge expects a vote at the Electoral College of at least three hundred and fifty, and a Republican working majority of twenty or more in the House of Representatives next session.—Reuter's American Service. New York, November 4.

The first returns from such widely scattered points as . Massachusetts, Illinois and Kansas show large gains in favour of President Coolidge .- Rewer's American Service.

Six hundred election districts in New York State outside New York City show that President Coolidge is leading, Mr. Davis coming second and Mr. Lafollette being a poor third; but the returns of a hundred districts in New York City give Mr. Davis 29,542 votes, Mr. Coolidge 19,088 and Mr. Lafollette 7,719; while the South is also mainly for Mr. Davis.

The returns from many points in the Eastern states, except the Bouth, show that Mr. Coolidge is maintaining a consistent load and the indications of a Coolidge landslide are multiplying even so far west as Dakota. - Reuter's American Service.

New York, Nov. 4. Prosident Coolidge in West Virginia is leading; Mr. Davis, in Wisconsin is slightly ahead of Mr. Lafollette, and in Massachusetts is leading Mr. Davis by seven to one. Mr. Roosevelt is running well ahead of Mr. Smith .- Reuter's American Service.

Returns of the nation-wide balloting for President and Vice-Pesident and members of Congress and State Governors hitherto indicate a Coolidge landslide, but the South is solidly in favour of Mr. Davis, who is leading in New York City, -- Renter.

EARLIER TELEGRAMS.

THE U. S. PRESIDENCY.

London, Nov. 4. The Morning Post New York correspondent says the odds are favouring Coolidge by 10 to 1, but the stock market and business continue to mark time, A Times message from New . York says . landslide for Coolidge is generally expected. Wall Street betting is 12 to 1 on Coolidge. Thirty to one against Lafellette has been offered, but not taken.

New York, Nov. 4.

Tues: & Pri.

Nationwide balloting for President, Vice-President and members of Congress and State governors began early this morning with the weather doing its best to contribute to the fulfilment of forecasts of a heavy poll. Last night the rival candidates finally appealed to the electorate, Mr. Coolidge and Mr. Davis by wireless and Mr. Lafellette contenting himself with a manifesto urging the progressives to "give the lie to the assumption that this country no longer boasts of an incorruptible and courageous citizenry."

Contests For Governorships. Apart from the Presidential race, two governorship contests are attracting wide attention, namely New York where Governor Smith and Theodore Roosevelt have been waging a hot and acrimonious contest, and Texas where "Ma" Ferguson, is the Democratic candidate for the governorship from which her husband was ousted last year under impeachment for alleged misuse of State funds .- Routor's American Service.

SHIPBUILDING DEPRESSION.

London, Nov. 4. The report of Lloyd's Register of Shipping for the year ended 36th June last records continuance of depression in the shipbuilding industry. It says the tonnage of new vessels classed by Lloyda during the year, name'y 835,000, was the lowest recorded in fifteen years, except in the second year of the War, representing only 27%; of that in 1920-1, and 55% of the to al of 1922-3.

In all, 454 vessels, of a tonnage of 600,000, were lost, and 500, vessels of a connage of 1,250,000 were dismantled or broken up, the Beats. The Equitable Trust Company of New last figure being twice that of the year ended June 1923.

Although the world's mercantile fleet is still fifteen million tons greater than in 1914, a large proportion of laid up tonnage is unlikely, ever to be able successfully to seek employment, and any serious revival of overseas traffic will probably lead to further elimination of uneconomical tonnage,—Reuter.
